The U.S. Department of Agriculture has evidence that on or about June 18, 2013 and April 11, 2012, you or your organization committed violations of the following sections of the Code of Federal Regulations, Title 9:

3.131(a) Sanitation.... repeated failure to remove excreta from primary enclosures as often as necessary to contamination of the animals contained therein and to minimize disease hazards and to reduce odors

3.133 Separation....DIRECT.... failure to ensure that animals housed in the same primary enclosure are compatible (June 18, 2013)

The Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) created federal regulations to ensure the welfare of animals and help prevent the spread of animal and plant pests and diseases. Since violations of the regulations can have serious and costly impacts that are detrimental to the public interest, APHIS is providing you with an Official Warning for the violation(s) described above. Any further violation of these federal regulations may result in the assessment of a civil penalty, criminal prosecution, or other sanctions. If you have any questions concerning this Official Warning or violation(s), please contact the APHIS official listed in this notice.
